

29th Annual

Hosted By: * Park Conservation District

* Natural Resources Conservation Service * Northern Ag Network *

Montana Range Days

June 20-22, 2005

Park County, Clyde Park, Montana

Please join us for three days of rangeland workshops, friendly contests, and a range educational tour. Open to Everyone of All Ages

Registration

Headquarters at Shields Valley High School

Registration Fee includes workshop materials and meals June 21 & 22

Individual – $30.00 Family – $80.00

Additional $5.00 charge if registration is postmarked after to June 1, 2005.

Dinner will be available Monday; provided by the Clyde Park Rural Fire Department, June 20 at an additional cost.

Brief Schedule of Events

Monday (p.m.)

Plant ID Workshop. Illustrated Talk Contest. Range Educational Tour begins (Impacts of grazing cattle in the Greater Yellowstone Ecosystem, riparian impacts of grazing cattle-why the concern, monitoring rangelands for success, using herbicides to alter plant community-good or bad, plant identification/growth habitats, managing range for wildlife, and complying with the Clean Water Act).

Tuesday (all day)

Rotating Workshops: Plant Anatomy/ID, Range Sites/Soils, Inventory/ Monitoring, Range Planning, and Stocking Rate/Utilization. Range Educational Tour continues.

Wednesday (a.m.)

Contests and Awards.

Range Educational Tour ends.

For further information and/or registration forms visit
Web Address: www.montanarangedays.com or

Amy Miller, District Administrator

Park Conservation District, 5242 Highway 89 South, Livingston, MT 59047

Phone: (406) 222-3701 Fax: (406) 222-8538

All programs are offered on a nondiscriminatory basis without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, sex, age, marital status or handicap.

29th Annual
Montana Range Days